PUC ALUMNI JARROD DENTON MOVES ARCHITECTURE FIRM TO NAPA

Jarrold Denton, a 1996 PUC graduate, is an architect, partner, and founder at Signum Architecture, LLP. He and his business partner Juancarlos Fernandez launched their firm in St. Helena in 2011 and relocated to Napa in 2023. When they founded the firm, they chose the name "Signum"—a Latin term for design—to reflect the center point of the firm and represent their unique studio environment. Signum looks at architecture from a holistic point of view. With a diverse group of talented workers, they collaborate with artists, offering a perspective beyond traditional architecture and are knowledgeable in low-carbon construction.

INSIDE THE MIND OF JACOB DURAN: NEWTON HALL'S SPIRITUAL RA

Jacob Duran has been involved with dorm worship since his freshman year. Now, as a sophomore, he is the Director of Combined Dorm Worship and Spiritual Residence Assistant for Newton Hall. Whether working behind the scenes or leading on stage, Jacob enjoys helping with worship services. When RAs from Newton Hall saw how involved he wanted to be, they encouraged him to become director of dorm worship. As spiritual RA for Newton, this is a new position that the deans had in mind for Jacob.
