PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE RECORDS STEADY ENROLLMENT GROWTH FOR NEW ACADEMIC YEAR

Pacific Union College continued to see an enrollment increase for the 2024-25 academic year, welcoming 1,000 students to its Angwin campus, education centers, and online programs—a rise from 930 last year.

PUC HOSTS 10 ACADEMIES FOR THE 34TH ANNUAL PUBLICATION WORKSHOP

For the 34th year, Pacific Union College welcomed back academies around California for Publication Workshop from September 8-10. About 110 participants from Lodi, Mesa Grande, Mountain View, Pine Hills, Pleasant Hill, PUC Prep, Redlands, San Fernando, Tualatin Valley, and Ukiah focused on improving their high schools' publications through workshops focusing on design, video production, photography, and writing.

SA FEATURE: JUSTIN TAINA

From Covington, Wash., is PUC's Student Association Executive Vice President Justin Taina. Even as a busy

junior biology major, he was motivated to run for SA to help make campus-life improvements and support the student body by managing the student senate. With all the social opportunities on campus, Justin hopes to increase student involvement and give them the best events and culture at PUC.

PASTOR ANIL KANDA SPEAKS ON 'PASSIONS' FOR PUC'S WEEK OF WORSHIP

Pacific Union College held its Week of Worship from October 7-11, with guest speaker Pastor Anil Kanda. He is the Youth and Young Adults Director for the Central California Conference and host of Hope at Night, a late-night show that seeks to answer questions about God and life through interviews. "I had an amazing time at PUC!" shared Kanda. "I was truly blessed by the students' engagement and their enthusiasm for spiritual conversations. It was wonderful to spend time not only speaking with the students but also connecting with the staff." PUC was blessed to have Kanda accept the invitation to speak at the college and connect with the students.

12 ACADEMIES COMPETE AT PUC'S ANNUAL WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

From October 3-5, Pacific Union College Preparatory School had 12 academies from across California on the campus of Pacific Union College for the annual volleyball tournament.

Approximately 200 athletes and coaches attended from 12 academies:

SA OFFICER SPOTLIGHT: LEILA BELTRAN

Leila Beltran toyed with the idea of running for SA religious vice president but was motivated to run due to her love of student leadership. She looked at all the SA positions and found religious VP the role she had the most aptitude for since she loves being personal with students. After much prayer, she decided to take the leap and run.
