

WHAT'S NEW

AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

PUC STUDENTS UNITE BY GROWING DORM WORSHIP ATTENDANCE

Pacific Union College has seen a significant increase in student attendance at dorm worship. This attendance increase follows the combined efforts of students and staff to enhance these worship opportunities, showing how listening to students and tending to their spiritual needs strengthens their relationship with Christ and keeps them hungry for His word.

PUC RESTRUCTURES AVIATION PROGRAM

Last school year, the aviation program at Pacific Union College embarked on an exciting new journey. Changes within the aviation industry meant it was time for a new direction. The program that had served so well in the past was due for a major overhaul. In consultation with the administration of Pacific Union College, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), and industry experts, the aviation program embarked on an innovative three-phase plan to place PUC as an industry leader in aviation training.

PUC WELCOMES ACADEMIES FOR ANNUAL COLLEGE DAYS

From November 1-4, Pacific Union College welcomed 300 guests for their annual College Days. This included students from Calexico Mission School, Central Valley Christian Academy, Fresno Adventist Academy, Glendale Adventist Academy, La Sierra Academy, Lodi Adventist Academy, Monterey Bay Academy, Mountain View Academy, Napa Christian, Newbury Park Adventist Academy, Pine Hills Adventist Academy, PUC Prep, Rio Lindo Adventist Academy, Sacramento Adventist Academy, and a church group from Costa Mesa.

PUC ANNOUNCES LARGE GROUP OF MAXWELL SCHOLARS FOR 2024, SECOND YEAR IN A ROW WITH HIGH NUMBERS

Pacific Union College selected 17 incoming freshmen as this year's recipients of the prestigious Maxwell Scholarship, the second-largest group of students awarded since the scholarship's inception in 2009. "We are proud to offer so many high-quality students the opportunity for a quality, Christ-focused education at PUC," said Gene Edelbach, vice president for enrollment, marketing, and communication. "We look forward to seeing where their next four years on our campus take them."

PUC'S EDUCATION AND THEOLOGY DEPARTMENTS SEE EXCITING STUDENT GROWTH FOR FALL QUARTER

Pacific Union College's Theology and Education departments are witnessing a marked increase in enrollment, reflecting a growing student interest in these fields and the college's commitment to academic excellence and hands-on experience. This quarter, the Theology department welcomed seven new students, bringing their enrollment to 18 compared to last year's 11. Similarly, the Education department has experienced a surge, with their total program enrollment reaching nearly 60.

PUC IS FOR EVERYONE

This is our promise to our Adventist community.

We want all students to be able to receive a high-quality Christian education. PUC offers a full-tuition scholarship for four years to all students of excellent character, strong academic achievement, and high financial need.
