
WHAT'S NEW

AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

PUC'S NURSING DEPARTMENT PROVIDE HEALTH CARE IN FIJI

This year's second annual trip to Fiji to provide healthcare was both a mission trip and an academic course, encompassing PUC's mission entirely—Learn with Purpose, Rise in Faith, and Serve with Love. From March 23 to April 2, 17 students, Ringer, and Nursing Department Chair Kimberly Dunker (who went as the cook), joined four physicians, one PUC staff member, two dentists, and other helpers.

THERE IS NO OTHER EXPERIENCE LIKE STUDYING ABROAD

PUC business student Olivia Newman has been spending her junior year studying in Spain through Adventist College Abroad. Growing up in Belleville, Michigan, she dreamed of studying abroad since high school. The thought of traveling and appreciating a different culture excited her. From the beautiful architecture in Spain and her goal of improving the Spanish language, Olivia chose to study at Campus Adventista de Sagunto.

PUC OFFERING NEW SCHOLARSHIP TO STUDENTS WITH HIGHEST FINANCIAL NEEDS

PUC is now offering a full-tuition, four-year scholarship—The Pioneer Promise—to students with excellent character, strong academic achievement, and high financial need—furthering the college's commitment to ensuring all aspiring students have the opportunity to receive a quality, Christian education.

PUC'S FRONTIERS CLASS: NAVIGATING COLLEGE LIFE & BEYOND

Frontiers was designed to give students the "pioneering" spirit and tools to successfully navigate college life and beyond through the engagement with Pacific Union College's Institutional Student Learning Outcomes of WISDOM.

SHINING BRIGHT: A PUC STUDENT'S JOURNEY TO EXCELLENCE IN ACADEMICS AND PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

There were a plethora of reasons why sophomore student Tiffany Do committed to Pacific Union College: the Christ-integrated education, serene campus filled with nature, closeness to home, and generous financial aid—to name a few. However, the most significant motivator in this decision stemmed from her campus visit before attendance.

PUC CONTINUES ITS MISSION TO SERVE WITH LOVE

For years, PUC has dedicated time during the school year and summer break to serve communities in other countries. Faculty and students have previously traveled to Kenya, Fiji, and Brazil while also taking medical mission trips to Indonesia, Cambodia, Tanzania, China, Bangladesh, the Philippines, and the Dominican Republic.

"THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE" PODCAST SPARKS CONVERSATIONS FOR PUC STUDENTS

Through the Grapevine is a podcast hosted by the communication department at PUC. The podcast covers an array of engaging topics, ranging from the impact of SDA upbringing to exploring their favorite aspects of PUC. Hosts Anna Ramos and Shannea Santiago take their listeners on a reflective journey through the field of communication. Their episodes have sparked insightful conversations among PUC students.

PUC'S SPRING WEEK OF WORSHIP UPLIFTS AND ENCOURAGES STUDENTS

Pastor Roger Hernandez spoke for this spring's Week of Worship. He is one of seven pastors in his family, the Ministerial and Evangelism Director for the SDA Southern Union Conference, and has served in ministry for over 30 years.

FACES OF PUC: LYDEAR ANG

Lydear Ang is one of our new Pioneers in this year's freshman class. She is a music pre-med major from Modesto, CA, who started her music education at a young age. Lydear decided to further her studies in the field because music has always been one of her biggest passions.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

June 14-16: PUC Graduation Weekend

June 23-28: PacificQuest (Grades 6-12) For students who are interested in STEM, aviation, film, and music. These four camps give students the opportunity to explore college and careers early.

June 30-July 5: PQ Rise (Grades 9-11) This week-long college early summer program will be held at PUC's Albion Field Station for students who want to explore marine science and art while experiencing college and careers early.

July 11-20: Soquel Camp Meeting

July 21-27: Redwood Camp Meeting

July 28-31: Korean Camp Meeting

August 22-25: Birding Bonanza & Alumni Retreat For more info and to register visit puc.edu/birding

August 25: Paulin Center for the Arts Open House

Oct. 8-11: Academy Women's Volleyball Tournament

Nov. 1-3: PUC College Days For more information about highschool visits email visit@puc.edu.

WHAT'S NEW

AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

PUC'S NURSING DEPARTMENT PROVIDE HEALTH CARE IN FIJI

This year's second annual trip to Fiji to provide healthcare was both a mission trip and an academic course, encompassing PUC's mission entirely—Learn with Purpose, Rise in Faith, and Serve with Love. From March 23 to April 2, 17 students, Ringer, and Nursing Department Chair Kimberly Dunker (who went as the cook), joined four physicians, one PUC staff member, two dentists, and other helpers.

THERE IS NO OTHER EXPERIENCE LIKE STUDYING ABROAD

PUC business student Olivia Newman has been spending her junior year studying in Spain through Adventist College Abroad. Growing up in Belleville, Michigan, she dreamed of studying abroad since high school. The thought of traveling and appreciating a different culture excited her. From the beautiful architecture in Spain and her goal of improving the Spanish language, Olivia chose to study at Campus Adventista de Sagunto.

PUC OFFERING NEW SCHOLARSHIP TO STUDENTS WITH HIGHEST FINANCIAL NEEDS

PUC is now offering a full-tuition, four-year scholarship—The Pioneer Promise—to students with excellent character, strong academic achievement, and high financial need—furthering the college's commitment to ensuring all aspiring students have the opportunity to receive a quality, Christian education.

PUC'S FRONTIERS CLASS: NAVIGATING COLLEGE LIFE & BEYOND

Frontiers was designed to give students the "pioneering" spirit and tools to successfully navigate college life and beyond through the engagement with Pacific Union College's Institutional Student Learning Outcomes of WISDOM.

SHINING BRIGHT: A PUC STUDENT'S JOURNEY TO EXCELLENCE IN ACADEMICS AND PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

There were a plethora of reasons why sophomore student Tiffany Do committed to Pacific Union College: the Christ-integrated education, serene campus filled with nature, closeness to home, and generous financial aid—to name a few. However, the most significant motivator in this decision stemmed from her campus visit before attendance.

PUC CONTINUES ITS MISSION TO SERVE WITH LOVE

For years, PUC has dedicated time during the school year and summer break to serve communities in other countries. Faculty and students have previously traveled to Kenya, Fiji, and Brazil while also taking medical mission trips to Indonesia, Cambodia, Tanzania, China, Bangladesh, the Philippines, and the Dominican Republic.

"THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE" PODCAST SPARKS CONVERSATIONS FOR PUC STUDENTS

Through the Grapevine is a podcast hosted by the communication department at PUC. The podcast covers an array of engaging topics, ranging from the impact of SDA upbringing to exploring their favorite aspects of PUC. Hosts Anna Ramos and Shannea Santiago take their listeners on a reflective journey through the field of communication. Their episodes have sparked insightful conversations among PUC students.

PUC'S SPRING WEEK OF WORSHIP UPLIFTS AND ENCOURAGES STUDENTS

Pastor Roger Hernandez spoke for this spring's Week of Worship. He is one of seven pastors in his family, the Ministerial and Evangelism Director for the SDA Southern Union Conference, and has served in ministry for over 30 years.

FACES OF PUC: LYDEAR ANG

Lydear Ang is one of our new Pioneers in this year's freshman class. She is a music pre-med major from Modesto, CA, who started her music education at a young age. Lydear decided to further her studies in the field because music has always been one of her biggest passions.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

June 14-16: PUC Graduation Weekend

June 23-28: PacificQuest (Grades 6-12) For students who are interested in STEM, aviation, film, and music. These four camps give students the opportunity to explore college and careers early.

June 30-July 5: PQ Rise (Grades 9-11) This week-long college early summer program will be held at PUC's Albion Field Station for students who want to explore marine science and art while experiencing college and careers early.

July 11-20: Soquel Camp Meeting

July 21-27: Redwood Camp Meeting

July 28-31: Korean Camp Meeting

August 22-25: Birding Bonanza & Alumni Retreat For more info and to register visit puc.edu/birding

August 25: Paulin Center for the Arts Open House

Oct. 8-11: Academy Women's Volleyball Tournament

Nov. 1-3: PUC College Days For more information about highschool visits email visit@puc.edu.

